KELLY WILL PLEAD TEMPORARY INSANITY

Counsel Says Issue of Mental Responsibility Will Be Raised

STATE RESTS ITS CASE

RED OAK, Iowa. Sept. 18—Prominent among the defenses of the Rev. Lyn George J. Kelly, charged with murder in connection with Villisca axe murders will be contention that he was mentally unbalanced when he made various alleged confessions of guilt with which he now is confronted. This was revealed today by W. E. Mitchell of counsel for Kelly in explaining his line of questioning after the state had rested its case with the introduction of a signed confession said to have been made by Kelly in jail at Logan, Iowa, Aug. 31, 1917.

Believed Kelly Unbalanced.

Mitchell said the issue of the preacher's mental responsibility would be raised as one of his defenses. R. C. Lahman, a newspaper editor of Missouri Valley, Ia., testified that he believed Kelly unbalanced when he saw him in jail at Logan.

Lahman and a man named Bachelleor were taken into the jail in the guise of highwaymen so they could be present when notices of new evidence by the state were read to Kelly by Sheriff M. D. Myers. An agent of the attorney general also was present during the reading. Lahman said the agent made frequent interruptions to say;

"That looks bad Kelly," to which the prisoner would respond: "It isn't so, it's a lie."

When the reading was about half way thru Kelly wanted the sheriff to promise they would send him to an insane asylum and not hang him, Lahman said.

Identifies Jail Confession.

The Logan county jail confession was identified by Paul E. Rhodifer, who testified he wrote it on a typewriter from the prisoner's voluntary dictation. One of the counsel for Kelly said tonight that the defense would seek to eliminate all of his alleged confessions from the jury's consideration. Five witnesses, defense were examined after the state had taken them by surprise and closed its case unexpectedly. Kelly said "I would like to go on the stand and tell the truth. I know I am innocent."

He listened to the reading of his confession with no opparent change in his demeanor.

Details Arrival In Villisca.

The statement quotes Kelly as saying that dominated by an irresistible force and with the text "Slay utterly", ever in his life, he killed the eight persons with an axe. Kelly is quoted in detailing his arrival in Villisca and incidents up to the time he was shown to his room and the family of Rev. W. J. Ewing had retired to their tents.

"I went to bed, but was restless," the statement quotes as Kelly's words. "I heard a noise outside like a windmill and opened the door of the balcony—but found nothing. **

"I began to feel sick and wanted to take a walk so I dressed and went outside. *********

"I walked across to the Presbyterian church. I did not intend to go further but my mind was working on a sermon on the text "Slay Utterly."

"I felt God wanted me to slay utterly and I did not know where I was going or where I was.

Kept Hearing "Slay Utterly."

"I got down near the end of the street and saw the shadow on the side of the house going back and forth and God told me to follow that shadow    I went hunting the shadow to the back of the house. I did not know who lived there but I kept on hearing that voice 'Slay Utterly'. I said 'yes, Lord, I will'.

"I went hunting around in the darkness around the house trying to find that shadow and accidentally found an axe. I picked it up and went to where the shadow went for God wanted me to follow that shadow. I went around to the front door. A voice says 'go in, do as I tell you, slay utterly! I saw no light, but I had to do as God told me and I dared not turn back because somebody was urging me on, I did not know who.

"I went right ahead because I heard that voice and as soon as I got into the house, some one whispered 'come up higher' out of the Bible. And I went up a flight of stairs because I thought I was going up Jacob's ladder.

"I walked thru the middle into the further room, I don't know what I went for there for only I was driven by an impulse and a voice. I saw some children lying there. The Bible says 'suffer little children to come unto me' and I said 'they are coming, Lord'.

Had to Do as God Told.

Before I knew what I was doing I started sending those children somewhere. I did not know and I had to do as God told me and slay utterly. And so, to obey God, I used the axe and did not realize

LEADER OF COSSACKS SUBMITS TO GOVERNMENT

Removes Menace of a Second March On Petrograd

Further Favorable Indication is the Seeming Tendency of Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates to Show Less Objection to a Coalition Cabinet.

Petrograd, Sept. 18.—The submission of General Kaledines, the Cossack leader has removed the menace of a second march on Petrograd. A further favorable indication is a seeming tendency of the workmen's and soldiers' delegates to show less objection to a coalition cabinet and it is believed that on his return from field headquarters the latter part of the week Premier Kerensky will announce the constitution of the ministry. It is expected this will meet with active opposition by the Bolsheviki, who demand the complete elimination of the Bourgeoisie element from the government. But with assurances of support from the army and the reasonable element of the Socialists, the government has no fears of the result of any clash with the radicals.

Observe New Note of Firmness.

A new note of firmness is observed in the latest orders to the army and fleet, in addition to which announcement is made that no further activity by self constituted organizations will be permitted. General Verkhovsky, the new war minister in his first press interview since he assumed office said:

"The first task of my associates and myself is to create an army on the basis of those of other nations. I can assure you that the measures which will be taken will create a mighty revolutionary army. It is a mistake for Germany to think that the revolution has destroyed the Russian army. It will soon become strong again and will resist to the end for the dignity and safety of the fatherland."

The war ministry has been placed in close contact with and under the direct control of the premier and commander-in-chief for better cooperation in the work of the re-organization of the army. Rumors of the proposed removal of the seat of government to Moscow are denied in official circles, where it is pointed out that no political or military reason for such removal exists.

U. S. NAVAL GUNNERS IN GERMAN PRISON CAMP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—William A. Miller, the unaccounted for member of the naval gun crew of the American tank ship Campana ,is in the German prison camp at Brandenburg with the four other gunners previously reported there.

While the story of the submarine destruction of the Campana told how Captain Oliver, the master and five Americans of the gun crew had been taken prisoners on the German submarine later despatches accounted for four of the naval guard at the prison camp. Today's report on Miller's whereabouts accounts for all five.

The Campana was sunk on August 6th after a gallant fight in which she entirely exhausted her ammunition and had to give up because her gunners had no more shells. As a result of that experience the supply of ammunition on all armed ships was doubled. Miller's home is in Chicago.

SAYS KAISER KNOWS TENDENCY AGAINST HIM

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Chronicle in a leading editorial under the head "despotism doomed", says:

"In Germany just now, evidently by pre-concerted arrangement, resolutions are being passed by all sorts of organizations attacking the American president for his scathing strictures on autocratic power in Germany which planned this war and in its prosecution has 'stopped at no barrier, either of law or mercy' * * * This tremendous indictment of the kaiser and his entourage evidently made a deep impression in Germany. Hence these inspired resolutions of protest, hence the kaiser's message published today and Hindenburg's contemptuous allusion to the American president. * * * These engineered German protests against President Wilson's powerful indictment prove that the kaiser, his Junkers and the military caste know the stream of the tendency against them."

HOPE FOR ELEVEN CENT MILK DIM

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 18.—Hope for eleven cent milk in St. Louis this winter appeared dim when the conference between Illinois dairy owners and city officials adjourned late today.

No agreement as to the price to be paid to the producers by the distributing companies was reached and adjournment was taken until Saturday. However, Donley A. Brooks, president of the Southern Illinois Milk Producers Association told the conference that the dairy farmers would get $3.50 a hundred pounds from the St. Louis distributors, or would sell the milk elsewhere.

St. Louis distributing companies have indicated that if they pay $3.50 a hundred pounds to the farmer, they will raise the price to the consumer to fifteen cents a quart. The present price is eleven cents.

KING VISITS AMERICAN SHIP.

London, Monday, Sept. 17.—King George in the course of a visit today to the river Clyde, in Scotland, went on board an American patrol ship. The crew lined the decks and cheered his majesty lustily. The king inspected the quarters of the crew and congratulated the officers on having such fine ships.

300,000 MEN WILL GO TO CAMPS TODAY

Whole Nation Will Be Astir With Movement of Selective Forces

MAY MAKE SECOND CALL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Marshalled for the last time as civilians and under civilian authority more than 300,000 men of the national army will go forward tomorrow to the sixteen cantonments to be trained for the battle against German autocracy. Their next move will be as fighting men toward the battlefields of France.

Represent 45 Per Cent of Total

The whole nation will be astir with the movement of the selective forces. The men represent approximately 45 per cent of the total quota under the first call from each of nearly 5,000 local boards. Already at the camps is the advance guard of five per cent of the total, composed of experienced men, including cooks. Out of this has been created a skeleton organization in which the second increment will begin to be absorbed tomorrow with little confusion. When the last men of this increment arrive, the camps will house half of the first call forces, or 343,000 men, and the other half will follow as rapidly as quarters and equipment are made available.

In a statement tonight the war department says the enormous task of obtaining equipment and supplies for the army is moving satisfactorily. Some of the men of the national army may be only partly equipped for some time after they are mobilized and no attempt will be made to furnish them with full war equipment until the eve of their departure for Europe. Some civilian clothing, such as overcoats, will have to be used for a time as the clothing industry has not yet caught up with its work.

May be Deficiency in Men

With the mobilization of one half of the 687,000 men of the first call under the seleective service law in progress, the question arises as to whether that number of men will be sufficient to fill all units of the national guard and national army. There are indications that a deficiency in men will be disclosed.

Seventeen divisions of the national guard have been organized, but with the exception of the New York, Pennsylvania and a few others and the 42nd division which soon will embark for France, they are not at maximum war strength. The fighting strength of the seventeen divisions under the new tables of organization would be 623,000 men, supplemented by many thousands of auxiliary troops. Whatever deficiencies there are will be supplied promptly from the National Army as the guard will go first to the front. Since the president called the first 687,000 men of the national army the signal corps, including the aviation section, has been greatly expanded. Nearly 100,000 additional men must be transferred to this service alone. The medical corps has also been greatly increased and numerous necessary auxiliary units for immediate duty abroad, not thought of when the call was made, have been organized. Where enlisted men of the guard or the regular army have been taken their places will have to be filled with National Army men.

May Make Second Call

So far as known no definite figure as to the probable total definiency in men has been compiled. It is not unlikely, however, that it will be necessary either to make a second call on the drafted forces or to train incomplete divisions.

Divisions will go to France only with full strength.

A statement from the war department today says the industries of the country are expanding rapidly to meet the army supply demands and only minor shortages are expected at the training camps.

Quartermaster officials regard the food situation as satisfactory. The problem of obtaining clothing and other equipment, however, has presented many obstacles, most of which already have been overcome. With 2,000,000 men to provide for and $3,000,000,000 to spend in the first year, the department faced a gigantic task.

"Difficulties arose from the outset," the statement says. "There was a shortage of wool, a shortage of duck, a shortage of fast dyes and a shortage of labor. There will be no appreciable shortage of cotton, but a shortage of looms.

Difficulties Being Overcome

"These difficulties have been and are being gradualy overcome. The item of tentage furnishes an illustration. The department desired to place orders for fifty million yards of tentage. The normal output of the county is twenty million yards per anum. All along the line industrial establishments had to be expanded to meet unprecedented demands.

"The first officers training camps brought a rush order to the quartermaster department for appoximately 100,000 uniforms. The equipment of technical troos, authorized by congress after the declaration of war brought other unexpected de-

URGE RE-ORGANIZATION OF PURCHASING SYSTEM

American Business Men Discuss War Prices

Speakers Suggest Formation of Department Similar to the British Ministry of Munitions—Declare War Industries Board Has Failed to Meet Situation.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 18.—Entire re-organization of the government purchasing system was urged by speakers today before the war convention of American business men. The war industries board recently created, has failed to meet the situation it was declared, by the lack of complete authority under the law.

Suggest New Department.

Formation of a new government department similar to the British ministry of munitions, was suggested by Waddill Catchings of New York and others. Mr. Catchings' proposal was contained in his report as chairman of a committee on cooperation with the conucil of national defense named by the chamber of commerce of the United Stotes. It carried the recommendation that the government be given full authority to fix prices not only on sales to the government but on materials sold to the public as well.

The subject of war prices and the duty of industry in meeting the government's war needs occupied the entire day. Secretaries Baker and Lane, who spoke, declared the war could not be won without the fullest co-operation by business. Industry, Secretary Baker declared, must impose upon itself the same sacrifices demanded from the men called into the trenches. Business he said deserves no particular praise for foregoing profits in war time, because it owes the same duty to the government every other class owes.

Secretary Lane called on business men to disprove the saying that America has no soul higher than that of making money.

Should Mark Prices Down.

"No man is entitled to anything he doesn't know how to put to the use of the nation and the world", he said. "You men do not want your sons to be able to say they did their bit abroad while you stayed at home and made money out of the war. The worst danger that we face is that of discontent from within. It may grow out of domestic conditions and the business man can do much to keep it from breaking out by marking down his prices to the public on the common places of life.

"Every business man should have in his office a picture of a boy in khaki and if the question of price comes up let him cast his eye on it and ask himself what that boy who is giving his life would do in similar circumstances. That boy would want his father to make the same sacrifices he himself is making."

SOLDIERS BID FAREWELL TO SWAGGER STICKS

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 18.—Officers and men of the 86th national army division today bade farewell to swagger sticks following an order from Major General Thomas H. Barry that soldiers at Camp Grant must observe uniform army regulations to the letter.

The swagger stick, a product of the English and French armies, positively cannot be used by members of the new national army, says the regulations.

Major Philander Betts attached to the construction division under Colonel I. W. Littell, announced today that an additional $500,000 would be expended in improving the housing facilities at Camp Grant.

PROHIBIT COLLECTION OF MONEY FOR SOLDIERS

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Colonel Winston, chief aid to General Carter, commander of the Central Department U. S. A., today issued a statement urging the public to refrain from giving money to soldiers in uniform for tobacco and other funds.

"Some of the men may give the money they collect to company funds but others may never turn in any of the money," said Colonel Winston.

Contributions from societies are not objected to by the army officials but the collection of money by soldiers is prohibited.

DENIES EXEMPTION FROM NATIONAL ARMY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 18.—Carl S. Luke was denied exemption from the national army by the St. Louis district board today tho he asked to be excused on the ground that he was liable to service in the German army. He set up the claim that if he were drafted and then were captured by the Germans he would be executed as a deserter from the German army.

Luk has taken out his first naturalization papers and has been in this country ten years.

REPORT FURTHER REVENUE INREASES

Washington, Sept. 18.—Further increases in net revenue from railway operations thruout the country have been reported to the inter-state commerce commission. Returns from 180 of the chief roads covering July operations and made public today, show net revenues of $103,337,406 as compared with $103,170,216 in July 1916.

KERENSKY LEAVES FOR FRONT

BERLIN PREPARING FOR PEACE MANEUVER

London Press And Public Believe Move Will Take Shape Before Winter

MAY "FEEL OUT" AMERICA

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The crop of so-called peace rumors that the German censor is permitting to sprout in leading German newspapers, convinces the London press and public that Berlin is preparing home opinion for another adroit peace maneuver which probably will take definite shape before the snow flies.

Government Does not Object.

First came the alleged British peace offer which, notwithstanding official denial is still being commented upon excitedly in Germany. Now much fuel has been added to the agitation by the report that the German government has abandoned claims of supremacy and control over the territory and population of Belgium. In addition there are all sorts of rumors regarding the German answer to the pope. A strange thing about the whole affair is that the German censor appears to be permitting the newspapers to discuss the matter freely, but so far as is known none of the discussions is founded on more substantial authority than the indefinite "we understand" or "we have received information." The fact remains however, that the German government as represented by the censor, does not object to these statements.

The Westminster Gazette quotes the Berlin correspondent of the Koeinsche Volks Zeitung as saying that "from an official source there is no truth in the report that Germany intends to declare an abandonment of her claims on Belgium."

The Gazette points out that the message is not necessarily an official denial that Germany has decided to renounce all claims on Belgium.

Would be Important Step.

The Star says it is significant that the German censor is permitting such publications adding:

"It would certainly be an important step in the direction of peace, but does not in itself insure the success of the negotiations."

A despatch to the Central News from Amsterdam says:

"A careful reading of German papers leads to the belief that reports of a British peace offer were circulated simply with the object of making it easy for the German government to rally to the attitude of the Reichstag majority," and the whole thing is an adroit maneuver engineered by Dr. Von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary. The general concensus of opinion in official and diplomatic quarters for some time has been that Germany would make another peace move before cold weather comes.

It would not surprise London if Germany first directed efforts or feelers to the United States.

END PUBLIC HEARINGS ON INSURANCE BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Public hearings on the soldiers and sailors' insurance bill were concluded today before the senate finance subcommittee with insurance men and others suggesting various changes.

The section which makes optional the taking of insurance by enlisted men was vigorously assailed by George E. Ide, president of the Home Life Insurance Company of New York, who asserted that it opened the door for future pension legislation, was too vague, utterly unsound in principle and was class legislation.

Labor's interest in the passage at the present session of congress of the soldier's insurance bill was submitted to President Wilson today by President Gompers and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Gompers said later the president was in accord with the view that the measure should be enacted now.

DECISION CONFORMS WITH BRITISH VIEW

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 18. — In connection with the report published in the Tages Zeitung that Germany had decided to abandon all claims to Belgium, the Koelnische Volks-Zeitung says:

"We too have received similar information from which it may be concluded that last week a decision about Belgium was reached in conformity with the English views."

Mathias Erzberger, a clerical center member of the reichstag, speaking at Biberach on Sunday said: "The foundation of peace must be no conquests of any kind. We are advancing with long strides toward a peace —peace built upon the basis of the reichstag peace resolution."

KORNILOFF WRITING STATEMENT

Petrograd, Monday, Sept. 17. — Twenty generals and other officers arrested on Friday with General Korniloff, leader of the revolution against the provisional government are being closely guarded. General Korniloff is imprisoned in a hotel at Mohilev where he is writing a statement which is expected to be finished today.

TO BEGIN DELIVERY OF LIBERTY BONDS SEPT. 26

M'Adoo States Reserve Banks Will Distribute Issue

Considering Probable Retention By Many Subscribers of Interim Certificates Officials Estimate Work Will Require Several Weeks.

Washington, Sept. 18.—Delivery of liberty bonds to subscribers, Secretary McAdoo announced tonight, will begin Sept. 26. The twelve federal reserve banks will distribute the issue. Considering the probable retention by many subscribers of interim certificates, already issued, officials estimate that the work of distribution will require several weeks. The huge issue is larger in the number of bonds required than first reports based on more than 4,000,000 individual subscriptions indicated. The number of coupon bonds, Secretary McAdoo announced tonight is estimated by federal reserve banks as in excess of 8,700,000 pieces of which more than 7,000,000 are of the $50 and $100 denominations.

Repeats Suggestion

Secretary McAdoo repeated his suggestion that holders of interim certificates would find it to their advantage to hold the certificates instead of exchanging them for bonds, until congress disposes of the bill authorizing four percent interest rate on the next offering.

"It is apparent," reads Secretary McAdoo's statement, "that if pending legislation should be enacted, and bonds should be issued bearing interest at a higher rate than three and a half percent per annum and exempt from the normal income tax in view of the resulting privilege of conversion the demand for three and a half percent liberty bonds particularly those of the small denominations would be greatly reduced.

Urged To Aid Government

"Employers, bankers, trust companies and others are urged to aid in relieving the government and the subscribers whom they represent of the trouble and expense incident to the delivery of great numbers of bonds in small denominations at this time, particularly in cases where subscribers have not payment in full for their bonds, by accepting and procuring the acceptance in the first instance of bonds of the largest denominations possible and of registered bonds rather than coupon bonds in case of large subscriptions, and by retaining or procuring the retention of the full paid interim certificates until congress shall have acted in the matter of pending legislation and the rate of interest to be borne by any new bonds and their general character with respect to their exemption from taxation and other matters shall have been determined.

"Until June 15, 1918, or such later date as may be fixed by prior public announcement by the secretary of the treasury no charge will be made for the issue of bonds of smaller denominations in exchange for bonds of larger denominations, nor for the issue of coupon bonds of larger denominations, nor for the issue of coupon bonds in exchange for registered bonds."

RECOMMEND STANDARD GRADES FOR POTATOES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. — Two standard grades for potatoes are recommended by the food administration and the department of agriculture. The necessity for their adoption is emphasized in a department statement today because of the prospect for a large crop, the food supply situation, over-taxed transportation facilities and the ruling that federal reserve banks may make loans against potatoes properly stored in approved warehouses. In the first grade the minimum diameter of the round variety is fixed at one and seven-eighths inches and of the long variety one and three-quarters inches. The minimum diameter of the second grade is one and one-half inches.

TO ATTACK LONG CREDIT ON GROCERIES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Long standing grocery accounts are to be attasked by the food administration.

"The waste and loss from this credit evil can hardly be over estimated," said an administration statement tonight announcing that 40,000 traveling salesmen for wholesale grocers and food jobbers would be enlisted in a campaign for economy of food, and to have retail grocers shorten their credits.

Unnecessary delivery service also will be discouraged to release men for the army and war industries.

KAISER OFFERS REWARD FOR AMERICAN PRISONER

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The American headquarters staff in France has just been informed by the French authorities that Emperor William has promised a prize of 300 marks and three weeks leave to the first German who captures an American soldier.

This information came from a German prisoner recently taken who declared that the offer was contained in an order issued throughout the army.

NEW YORK SCHOOL REGISTRATION

New York, Sept. 18.—The registration this year of 823,441 pupils for the public schools of this city shows a decrease of 5,879 from last year, according to figures made public today by the superintendent of schools. It is expected, However, that by the end of this month nearly 12,000 more pupils will have registered. Because of the infantile paralysis epidemic last year, the schools opened two weeks later,

RUSS PREPARE TO MAKE FIRMER STAND

Fruition of Reformative Plans in The Armies Expected Shortly

DRIVE GERMANS BACK

Russia, having recovered in great measure from the effects of recent internal difficulties, is preparing to make a firmer stand against the common enemy. It is announced that the leadership of the Russian armies has been re-organized and that the fruition of reformative plans in the armies themselves is expected shortly.

Kerensky Goes to Mohilev

Premier Kerensky and the war and marine ministers in his cabinet have gone to Mohilev, Russian great headquarters, to confer with the military leaders. They will also see General Korniloff and his leading aides in the recent revolt. Whether Korniloff, the leader of the summer offensive in Galicia this year, is to suffer the supreme penalty for his act probably will depend upon the result of the conference at Mohilev. The Russians' north army which has made some progress toward driving the Germans back to the Dvina line in the Riga region on Sunday occupied several Teuton defenses northeast of Friedrichstadt south of Riga. In its official report Berlin makes no mention of activity in this region.

Occupy Teutonic Defenses

General Commander Stcherbatcheff on the Roumanian frontier has carried out successfully an offensive movement in the Suchitza valley, northwest of Fokshani. A section of the fortified Austro-German defenses near Varnitza was occupied by the Roumanians. German attacks in the Pantziu region to the southeastward were repulsed.

Raids continue on the northern end of the western front, with both the British and Germans as the aggressors. Berlin, however, mentions no infantry activity on the front of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria.

The artillery and aerial activity on the western front remains intense. From Nieuport to near Arras and especially in the Ypres sector the opposing guns are showing increased activity.

German Crown Prince Fails

In two efforts against French positions on the Aisne front the German crown prince again has met with failure. Near the Miette river on the ed the French advanced lines, only to be thrown out again. In Champagne Neufchatel road the Germans reached and on the righ bank of the Meuse the artillery fire has been more spirited.

The Italians are still withstanding successfully Austro-Hungarian efforts on the southeastern edge of the Bainizza plateau while the big guns are hurling their monster shells over the battle torn area of the Carso plateau.

France, according to her new premier, Professor Painleve, will continue the war until Alsace-Lorraine is restored and the Germans make payment for the damage caused by their ruthlessness in the occupied areas of the republic. France, by the end of 1917, will have expended 103,000,000,000 francs for military operations and civil administration since the beginning of the war.

EMPLOYES SELECT TEMPORARY OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The second day of the federal employes' convention to organize a national federal employes' union was spent selecting temporary officers and various committees. H. M. McLaren, president of the Washington local federal employes union was unanimously elected president of the convention. Daniel Goldsmith, president of the civil service retirement association; Dr. Llewellyn Jordan, secretary of that organization and W. E. Russell, president of the New York Federal civil service society urged that the national union open its doors to outside organizations of government employes.

PASS DEFICIENCY BILL

Washington, Sept. 18.—The $7,000,000,000 war deficiency bill passed the house today by a unanimous vote.

The bill, the largest supply measure in the country's history, now goes to the senate. It directly appropriates $4,830,000,000 and authorizes contracts for $2,314,000,000 additional.

HIGH WAGES.

Plumbers in El Paso, Tex., evidently intend to get their share of war profit or some other kind. The men have been drawing $7 a day wages and now have struck for $8 a day. It is such cases of overreaching that always end unfortunately for the working men themselves.

SOLDIER INSURANCE.

One of the uses to which it is proposed to devote part of the proceeds of Liberty Loan Bonds is to afford our soldiers and sailors life and indemnity insurance and to provide for allowances to their dependent families while they are in the ranks. On this point Secretary McAdoo of the Treasury, whose plan of insurance for our fighting men was endorsed by President Wilson and is now embodied in a law pending before Congress says:

"Every soldier and sailor who serves his country in this war will earn everything the proposed war insurance bill provides; to be a beneficiary to the proposed law will be a badge of honor.

"When we draft a wage earner, we call not only him but the entire family to the flag; the sacrifice entailed is not divisible. The wife and children, the mother, the father, are all involved in the sacrifice—they directly bear the burden of defense. They suffer just as much as the soldier, but in a different way, and the nation must generously discharge as a proud privilege the duty of maintaining them until the soldiers and sailors return from the war and resume the responsibility.

"We have drawn the sword to vindicate America's violated rights, to restore peace and justice, and to secure the progress of civilization. We cannot permit our soldiers, while they hold the front, to be stabbed in the back by uncertainty as to what is being done for their loved ones at home. Our tomorrows are in their hands—theirs in ours. The national conscience will not permit American soldiers and their dependents to go unprovided with everything that a just, generous and noble people can do to compensate them for the sufferings and sacrifices they make to serve their country."

SPEEDING UP.

London papers are said to comment occasionally upon the promptness with which people in America do things and the papers say that English methods suffer by comparison as to speed at least. In line with these statements it will be in place for the English papers to comment upon the alacrity with which the Y. M. C. A. complied with General Pershing's request for movie machines and operators. Within 24 hours after receipt of the cablegram authorizing the shipment a large part of the equipment and the necessary operators were on the way to France. The remaining men and equipment followed only a short time afterward. It was possible to be thus prompt because of the preparations made in advance.

As the war progresses the nations of the world are going to be more and more surprised with the speed which this country can make when the emergency arises. In the matter of war preparations now, with the war actually declared less than six months, legislative and financial preparations and the actual work of mobilizing forces has proceeded much further than it would in twice the time in England. These are not days for self-complacency, yet there is no impropriety in Americans taking due credit for their achievements and then letting the records they make serve as inspiration for still more rapid and effective work.

AMERICAN BUSINESS MEN.

American business men are in session now at Atlantic City under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. The meeting promises to be one of the most notable of business men ever held in this country. The program as outlined includes subjects bearing on the relations of industries to the effectiveness of the war. Various problems will be discussed. In referring to this great convention the Globe Democrat has the following:

"The Chamber of Commerce of the United States is committed, by vote of its members, to the doctrine of no profit interest in the war. What is more important, it holds that everything else should be subordinated to the one great aim of winning the war at the earliest possible moment. Every day's delay but adds to the loss of life, the impoverishment of peoples and the anguish of soul of millions.

"The great war convention will be doubly valuable. Addresses from Secretaries Baker and Lane, Food Administrator Hoover, Mr. Reynolds the banker; Mr. Scott, the chairman of the War Industries Board; Lord Northcliffe, Ambassador Bekhmeteff of Russia, President Bedford of the Standard Oil Company and others who have recently devoted all their time to various problems of the war, at home and abroad, will be instructive to the delegates and thru them to the interests they represent, and the spectacle of the leading business men of the country eagerly seeking advice as to how they may best serve the nation in its greatest crisis will have an inspiring effect.

"Many things have already been achieved in the direction of preparedness, but there is still much to do. Possibilities of friction over food and fuel control and over preferential treatment of commodities essential to the national defense and security are apparent. But a complete understanding of the necessities will reduce the friction to the minimum. Such appeals as are now heard to ship coal while transportation facilities are available will be given greater heed when everybody understands that every step is being taken under a carefully wrought out general plan."

THE LIBERTY MOTOR.

(Chicago Post.)

If all that is claimed for the new American aerial motor prove true, then it is well named. The United States can make no more valuable contribution to the cause of allied victory than a standardizd motor of high efficiency that will permit the rapid construction of planes and the peopling of the air with an overwhelming force of skilled aviators.

The keen and unceasing battle for the mastery of the sky is clear demonstration of the importance that this sphere has developed as a decisive factor in warfare. It is only with great difficulty that the allied forces on the western front maintain their superiority in air reconnoissance, maneuver and attack. They are stoutly challenged by the enemy, and while the struggle above the earth goes forward both artillery and infantry hang upon its issue.

The surface forces in warfare more and more depend upon the planes. No offensive can be made until the aviators have provided the detailed maps of enemy positions; the big guns are silent or ineffective until from their aerial scouts they have been given the range of vulnerable points in the enemy defense. To this vital work is added the destruction by bombing of railroads, supply trains, supply depots and munition dumps—a process of crippling the foe before attacking his embattled front.

The Germans of late have been utterly reckless in falsifying the reports of their aerial losses. Thus far the months of May, June, July and August the Germans admit the loss of only 271 planes, whereas the French and British claims of enemy planes destroyed aggregate 621 for the same period, and to this must be added the claim that 476 additional machines were seriously damaged.

In August the British admit the loss of 87 planes and claim the destruction of 119. This is a margin of 32, a sufficient margin to retain the upper hand, but not sufficient to be decisive.

It is the opportunity of America so to supplement the aerial strength of the allies as to make the air a conquered sphere, rather than a disputed battle ground. This, we believe, can be done, and if it be done the hour of German collapse will be at hand.

WOMEN WHO WORK.

The Burlington, conceded to be one of the best managed railroads in the country, is now employing women and girls in its shops at St. Joseph, Mo. Twenty of these women workers in overalls and jumpers are engaged in wiping locomotives and as mechanics' helpers. This is nothing radical that the Burlington has done, for the road is following the example set by a number of other railroads and it is a case of expediency for so many men in the service of the roads have been drafted for the army.

It is interesting to note in this connection that there are several young women at Illinois Woman's College who discarded factory overalls when they came to Jacksonville yesterday to re-enter the college. These young women live in a factory town, and partially for patriotic reasons and partially because of the exceptional wages offered, spent the larger part of their summer vacations clad in khaki overalls working at the factory. How loath factory managers were to give up their workers was seen when these young women were offered very substantial increase in wages if they would only remain thru the year instead of returning to their college work. Something of this same situation exists in practically all large cities and certainly young men and young women under the draft age who attend college this year will do so because of an abiding conviction that they are so doing the best thing for themselves and their country. The call to work in many lines is insistent and there never was a time when young people had the opportunity for physical work at such high wages. Those who continue in their school lines and brush aside the alluring wage offers are really acting wisely.

THE KAISER'S COUSIN

(By Charles J. Rosebault of The Vigilantes.)

When the historian comes to treat of the activities of the pro-Germans, he will have to note that the Kaiser's Cousin was more audacious than all the rest. Most of the editors of the German language newspapers, he will discover, saw the writing on the wall in time to save their precious heads but the great Viereck, like that other valiant relative of the Kaiser, King Constantine, plunged boldly on. Instead of retiring under exposure, he turned upon his assailants, dipping his pen deep in his pot of vitriol.

"Who," he demanded in his latest issue of "The American Weekly," "contributes the money for The Vigilantes? Nobody knows."

Let us return the question. Who contributes the money which keeps Viereck's Weekly alive? No answer is necessary. Everybody knows.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

THE MIRACLE.

The prairie states, where corn is grown, were parched and wilted by the heat; across the fields hot winds had blown, week after week, and then repeat. The sky was like a shield of brass, the sun was sizzling night and day; I heard the farmers cry, "Alas! This year we'll have no corn or hay." The crop was given up for keeps, there was no hope for any yield; the farmer shed his bitter weeps, while gazing on his shriveled field. And then, when things were at their worst, some dark blue clouds lined up on high; they fooled around a while, then burst, and soaked the cornfields baked and dry. "It is too late," the farmers said while rain was pelting at the door; "tho water falls till we are dead, the corn is gone, for evermore." Rain followed rain, day after day, it seemed that it would never stop; and now we hear the farmers say, "We'll have at least a half a crop." It is a miracle as great as nature's laws have e'er allowed; it is as tho some planted skate got up and gambolled in his shroud. We needed all that we could grow to keep the struggling world supplied; and so the marvel seems to show the God of battle's on our side.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY

September 19, 1849—Late corn planting. Owing to the unfavorable character of the last spring, farmers were late in putting in their crops. We saw recently a piece of corn which was planted on the 9th of June and which will make a good crop, showing the capability of our soil to produce a crop under almost any circumstances.

MANY EVENTS IN HONOR OF WHITE HALL SOLDIERS

RECEPTION ONE OF SERIES OF SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.

Gregory Farm Stallion Won Prizes at State Fair — Chautauqua Directors Met—Funeral of Miss Gifford Held—Enlarging School Building — Greene County News Notes.

White Hall, Sept. 18—There has been a continued round of attention to the boys who are to represent White Hall and vicinity in the new National Army, a large percentage of whom leave this week for Camp Taylor at Louisville. The most elaborate and pleasing event was that held Monday evening in the parlors of Ballow & Campbell, when twenty of the "raw recruits" availed themselves of the invitation to be the guests of this firm. The color scheme of red, white and blue was carried out in every possible way in connection with the handsome spread.

There was a bouquet at each plate in keeping with the national color arrangement, accompanied with a small American flag. The brick ice cream also carried the colors and the decorations of the room were elaborate. Among the flags was a large one that has been handed down since the days the White Hall boys of the sixties went to the front, and this flag has great local interest. It was presented by the ladies of White Hall in 1862, and while it is bearing the inscription of Company I, 91st Illinois, the custodian of this historic emblem, A. O. Vosseller, states that the marking is not altogether correct, as the flag was presented to the entire White Hall squad who were then being drilled by Capt. Culver, the presentation speech having been made by Mrs. Laura Worchester Cox, now of LaGrange, Illinois. These boys volunteered in various companies of tht 91st regiment and some joined other regiments. Naturally this part of the decoration of Monday evening's function in honor of the soldier boys of the present generation attracted profound attention.

Addresses Made.

E. C. Pearce was master of ceremonies, and there was an address by Rev. Hugh Davidson, pastor of the Christian church. Some of the boys responded, including Joseph Lyman, Carl Dossel and Fleet Barnett. The gathering, while the result of private initiatives, proved to be a most fitting occasion for paying honor to the soldiers now under orders, the proceedings reflecting the sentiment of the community very impressively. Patriotic airs on the piano brought the gathering to their feet as executed by Miss Ilda Davis, and Miss Davis' accompaniment to the appropriate songs rendered by Miss Lucille Knox heightened the musical effectiveness. The proceedings were witnessed by a large gathering of people at the public entrance to this establishment, and the spirit of the occasion emanated a wide circle.

Other Events.

Announcement of the plans for this event was followed by arrangement for other functions of a like character, beginning with a reception and banquet in the M. W. A. hall Friday evening, at which Mrs. J. E. McAvoy presided, and there was singing by the Duncan sisters and recitations by Mrs. E. C. Pearce, Mrs. F. N. McLaren and Miss Georgine Piper Misses Lucille Knox and Kate Ellis gave a vocal and violin numbers respectively and Rev. Leo Howard added appropriate words Sunday evening special patriotic services were held in the Presbyterian church, and there was a stirring and enlightening sermon by Rev. A. F. Ewert that held the large audience with the closest attention.

These rounds of events closed Tuesday night with a reception and flag presentation in the K. of P. hall, preceded by a chicken dinner at the restaurant of Frank Ross. Following the Ballow & Campbell banquet Monday evening, the soldier boys were guests of Carl Lowenstein, manager of Princess theatre, at a performance of "The Small Town Girl".

G. B. Danforth is in a dangerous condition at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Chapin, in Jacksonville. He was taken there for examination and treatment which he has been unable to undergo on account of his enfeebled condition.

P. R. Dunn returned to Springfield Monday, after recuperating at home for a few days. He is connected with the office of the state fire marshal.

T. E. Conlee served on the police force at the state fair last week, and his place as city marshal was filled by John Coonrod. The travel to the state fair this year from here was exceedingly light.

Writes Letter From France.

Dean E. Raines, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Raines of White Hall, writes from France a brief letter which was received last Friday, in which he says that he is not permitted to say all the things that he would like to say. He is a member of Company A, 18th, Infantry, "Somewhere in France", and says that the dinner by the French government in honor of the soldiers was an imposing occasion. He says that the American soldiers in France are craving American tobacco, adding that the Sammies have paid as high as 20c each for cigarettes, and that Velvet tobacco sells for $3.60 for a tin. A brother of the writer, Berney Raines, promptly met the suggestion by making up a donation among the friends to a fund that has provided a consignment of tobacco to the soldier boys in France, which Dean will distribute among his comrades, he not being addicted to the habit himself.

F. E. Baker went to Chicago Monday with one load, 25 head of cattle for which he paid Simon Vanderheyden $14.50, believed to be the largest price ever paid on the local market for cattle. Vanderheyden had fed the cattle ninety days at Drake, and they averaged about 1,150 pounds.

A change in the railway mail service on the C. & A. brings the morning mail to White Hall at 10:52 a. m. instead of 7:50 a. m., three hours later than the former schedule. The new arrangement went into effect Sunday.

George Vermillion Clarence Fox, H. H. Griswold and Frank Campbell visited the aviation camp near Belleville Sunday at which flying operations were started last week. it presents a great and inspiring sight, and the boys are talking of jaunts to other camps about the state.

Helen, aged 8 years, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. S. Depoister, died at 4 p. m. Sunday, and the funeral was held Monday afternoon. The mother and one other child are now ill with typhoid fever, which caused the death of Helen. Rev. Depoister is a minister of the Christian church and has been devoting considerable of his time as a chautauqua manager. The mother is now at the point of death.

School Enrollment Large.

A movement that has been incubating for the past three years is now reaching a stage of reality where results may soon be a reality because of the necessity of the situation. This has reference to the enlargement of the school quarters. School is again in session with the largest enrollment in its history, the total being 655 with 134 in the high school. Twenty teachers are employed, and another teacher will be added in order to divide one lower room of 62 pupils, as soon as a place can be provided for an extra class. The demand for additional quarters has taken on the proposition of a township high school, and at an open meeting of the board of education held last week the proposition was gotten under good headway,, and another open meeting will be held just as soon as the county superintendent of schools can accumulate the data necessary to govern the enterprise. It is said that leading land-owners are giving the proposition hearty support under the revised township high school law, and that the present necessity of the situation is giving added impetus. White Hall has by far the largest school enrollment in the county, both in the high school and in the grades.

Chautauqua Association Met.

The White Hall Chautauqua Association directors met last week and organized by electing Rev. A. F. Ewert as president. Louis Lowenstein as vice president, H. W. Shirley secretary and Alonzo Ellis treasurer. Plans for next year's sessions are now under way, and the proposition to erect a steel coliseum on the grounds is a very live issue. If the coliseum is not built in time for next year, it will be certainly be ready two years hence, but the chances are that the sheet coliseum will be ready for dedication at the next sessions. The suggestion in these columns for giving the program a local coloring is meeting with such favor that the ideas embodied may be carried out in entirety.

The Gregory Farm show heard of yearly stallions arrived home from the state fair at Springfield with about all the honors that were possible for them to achieve. The six yearlings won first, second, third, fourth and sixth prizes against competition that afforded the finest array of Percherons ever seen at the Illinois state fair. They were awarded first on produce of dam, (showing two), first on stallion under three years, junior and reserve champion stallion, and second on get on sire. This is the greatest victory on the young class of Percherons that has ever come to "The France of America."

Harry Halpin, of Pittsfield, was a visitor last week. He is a native of White Hall, and is now commercial representative for a paint house.

A. J. Barnett made a trip to Indiana last week.

W. S. Corsa attended a meeting of directors of the Percheron Society of America, in Chicago Friday, he being a member of the board and a former president.

Harry Evans and Dale Hyle, two graduates of the White Hall high school, have decided to study for the Methodist ministry, and have entered Wesleyan University at Bloomington.

Considerable attention is being shown the White Hall boys who are unders orders for service, some of whom will leave this week. These functions began with a banquet in M. W. A. hall Friday evening, services of a special character in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, a spread in the parlors of Ballow & Campbell Monday evening, and the chain of events terminating Tuesday evening with a reception to all soldiers in the K. of P. hall. This closing event was preceded by a 6 o'clock chicken dinner at the restaurant of Frank Ross.

Civil War Veteran Dies

The death of Lemuel V. Dayton, a veteran of the civil war, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Piper, a few minutes after noon Friday last, his age being 73 years and six months. He had been in poor health for several years. His wife and the one daughter survive, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton were married near Columbus, Ohio, to which state our subject migrated from his native state, of Vermont, and they came to White Hall in the same year of their marriage, 1869. Here they have since made their home. Mr. Dayton served during the civil war as a member of a Ohio volunteer regiment, and he has been active in G. A. R. circles during the forty seven years he has resided at White Hall.

Gifford Funeral.

Mrs. Maggie King Gifford, member of an old White Hall family, died in a hospital at Hillsboro Saturday, and the remains were brought to White Hall for burial, funeral services being held in the Methodist church at 2 o'clock Tuesday. Her age was 55 years and 6 months. One sister, Mrs. Nathan Tanner, resides at White Hall, and another sister is Mrs. R. E. Ostrander of Chicago. The King family is most favorably remembered by the older residents. A brother, Frank King, became quite prominent in educational circles, but for several years has, owing to poor health, devoted his attention to farming pursuits, he owning a farm in Ohio.

The return of Rev. Leo Howard to the pastorate of the White Hall Methodist church gives general satisfaction. Rev. Howard is a faithful and effective worker in the interests of his church and what it represents, and is a willing and valuable worker in any matters for the general public welfare. The ensuing year will doubtless record greater things for his church under the continued leadership of this able and popular pulpiteer.

CONCORD PEOPLE HONOR EARL ABERNATHY

Attend Reception Given in Honor Concord's Only Boy Drawn in First Quota for National Army.

More than three hundred people attended the reception given in honor of Merle Abernathy Tuesday evening at the home of J. H. Abernathy three miles east of Concord. The guests came from many points most of them by automobile.

The reception was held on the lawn of the Abernathy home and a program both patriotic and inspiring was carried out. Among those taking part were Judge William E. Thomson and Carl H. Weber of this city.

After the program has been carried out frappe and cake were served and the young people enjoyed a marshmallow toast over a huge bonfire. Rev. C. G. Cantrell was chairman of the evening. The Christian Sunday schools of Concord presented Mr. Abernathy with a special soldier's Bible.

The guest of honor is the only boy from Concord drawn in the first quota. He is a popular young man and the reception was a fitting tribute and shows the esteem in which he is held by his many friends. The program follows:

THE PARK BOARD.

The park board met last night with all members present. Many matters were informally discussed. All properly approved bills were ordered paid.

It was decided to close Nichols park October first, put out the lights and store the seats and playground apparatus.

The president, Messrs. Gomes and Brennan were appointed a special committee to take charge of the preparation of a swimming beach.

As the water is again being removed from the lake it may be possible to undertake the work sooner than has been anticipated and the committee was authorized to use its best judgment in the matter.

Doesn't it make you "sweat blood" to think what would become of those you love, and who are dependent on you, if you should die penniless.

That doesn't happen to the man with money. He has done his duty. He saves his money and puts it in the bank where it is safe from fire, burglars or his own extravagance.

The 1918 STUTZ CARS

(The Stutz Motor Car Co.'s Own Statement)

The 16-valve 4-cylinder Stutz Motor is the result of several years' practical and successful experience, under our own personal management, having met all competition on special constructed Speedways and rough roads. This motor is not a one night's dream, but the result of exhaustive tests obtained from laboratory and actual road tests at low and high speed, as well as for general economy. The sturdiness of construction, the careful workmanship, the best quality of material, insuring dependability and efficiency is evident in this motor, and is characteristic of Stutz design.

The T head type motor is used, as our past experience has taught us that while the valve in the head construction is slightly more powerful, it has a number of objectionable features which favor T head construction.

The valves in a 16-valve 4-cylinder motor are of smaller size eliminating the possibility of warping and crystalizing from high speed service. The wear on the cams and valve mechanism is reduced very materially. The valve area is greater, however, affording longer duration of maximum gas flow and cleaner scavenging, valve efficiency being of more importance than increased number of cylinders.

In summary, this motor affords high power, speed, flexibility, simplicity and especially smoothness and economy in operation, and is capable of performing every demand of motor car users.

DR. COCHRAN TO ATTEND THREE CONVENTIONS

Will Go to Chicago Next Week for Various Meetings of Medical Men at Congress Hotel.

Dr. C. C. Cochran will leave Monday for Chicago to attend the three day's session of the American Association of Progressive Medicine at the Congress hotel. At the close of this convention the American Association of Orificial Surgeons will convene for three days. On the following Monday the American Association for the Study of Spondylotherapy will also enter upon a three days' session.

Dr. Cochran will remain for the greater part of these three conventions. On the first day of the progressive convention Dr. L. D. Rogers of Chicago, president of the association, will explain and demonstrate with clinical cases his system of auto-hemic therapy, which according to the North American Journal of Homeopathy, is destined to become a universal and every day treatment. The following statements are also taken from the publication mentioned above:

"On Tuesday, the second day of the Progressive convention, Dr. George Starr White of Los Angeles, Cal., will explain and demonstrate with clinical cases his method of biochromo-dynamic-diagnosis. By his method of diagnosis cancer, tuberculosis and many other constitutional diseases can be detected months before they can be discovered by any other means, at a time, perhaps, before the disease has advanced beyond a curable stage.

"On Wednesday, the third and last day of the Progressive convention, Dr. D. V. Ireland of Columbus, Ohio, will explain and demonstrate with clinical cases that the Sigmoid and descending colon is the seat of the cause of many supposedly incurable troubles. He will illustrate the use of a sigmidoscope that will present to the vision some twenty inches of the lower end of the bowel. He will also give the proper treatment of lesions in this region that is often followed by the most brilliant recoveries. Dr. C. H. Duncan of New York, is scheduled to be present and give practical demonstrations of his system of autotherapy, which has already received wide recognition yet unknown to thousands of practicing physicians. Dr. Z. L. Baldwin of Kalamazoo, Mich., will report some extraordinary cures of goitre by means fitted to overcome eye strain, and also some remarkable results in treating diabetes by the same means.

Insanity Cured by Surgery

"Dr. L. M. Ottofy of St. Louis, Mo. will report some cases of skin cancer cured by auto-hemic serum radiumized. Dr. J. W. Parker of Peoria, Ill. is scheduled to report a number of supposedly incurable cases of insanity cured by surgery.

"Dr. J. W .Enos of Jerseyville, Ill. will illustrate some radically new discoveries that he has made aong the line of vibrations. He claims to have determined the rate of vibration of some 64 drugs. The doctor determines the rate of vibration of his patient, and gives that drug which has a corresponding vibration. Dr. Enos will also demonstrate by means of the colored plates devised by Dr. White how the pulse is affected by different colors and what diseases are thus diagnosed.

"Dr. W. A. Guild of Des Moines, Ia., chairman of the Bureau of Surgery, is scheduled to give some of the biggest things in war surgery. Dr. J. W. King of Bradford, Pa., in charge of bureau of electro therapeutics, will present some new and practical ideas in that field.

"The American Association of Orificial Surgeons will have daily clinics and will illustrate by actual operation upon the living subject how many supposedly incurable cases may be cured by some simple operation upon some one or more of the orifices of the body. This society was organized in 1886, has had a steady growth, and many of the ideas originally promulgated by Dr. F. H. Pratt, the father of orificial surgery, are now commonly accepted and utilized, tho thirty years ago they were ridiculed, but there are still many things of very great practical value in orificial surgery that are wholly unknown to the great mass of the profession who are either too conservative or too indifferent to investigate."

where I was hitting them, only I was trying to do what God wanted me to do. After killing the children I went into the room where the parents were and I don't remember which one of them I struck first as my head was all wrong and I kept on hearing voices. I slayed utterly, by using the axe, led by this impulse that I could not seem able to control.

"I then went down stairs and wanted to lay down and rest and saw a room and went in not knowing who was there, but found two children in bed and God said 'more work yet'. Before I knew what I was doing I continued my sacrifice by killing these two children with the axe as I had to offer blood sacrifices.

"To the best of my memory I left the axe in the house and returned to the Ewing home and went back to bed and I got up in tre morning caught the 5:19 train for Macedonia, arriving home about 7:30."

CONVINCED WOMAN COMMITTED SUICIDE

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Police after investigating the death of Miss Josephine Parker, 43 years old who was found dead in an unfurnished apartment on the North Side last night declared today they were convinced that she committed suicide because of a love affair. They expressed their belief that she had been jilted and swindled by an admirer, whose identity has not yet been ascertained.

The woman is believed to have been dead two weeks before her body was discovered. She rented the apartment two weeks ago but never moved any furniture into it. Amsay Parker died last February and the daughter then went to Decatur, Ill., to live with a sister, Mrs. Allie Rainey. Later she went to California and while there the police believe she met a man whom she became engaged to marry. She returned to Chicago last August and is said to have been waiting for him when she ended her life.

GOVERNMENT ATTEMPTS TO SETTLE STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The government today undertook to settle the strike of iron workers at San Francisco shipbuilding plants working on government contracts without awaiting a basic agreement on other strikes in Seattle ship yards. Reports to the shipping board indicated a more favorable outlook on the situation which is interfering with one eighth of the government's ship construction. Chairman Hurley of the shipping board expects to leave for San Francisco tomorrow with William Blackmon, a department of labor conciliator. Before departing he will confer further with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and chairman of the defense council's labor committee, to whom he appealed today for aid.

Mr. Hurley said tonight he believed the strikes would end shortly under an agrement for higher pay, the burden of which would be divided between the shipbuilders and the government with the government's proportion larger for builders making small profits.

mands. The equipment department has also supplied six months' equipment for the expeditionary force now in France and has contributed to the equipment of the medical units.

With ideal weather the opening day crowd was larger than usual, tho many of the exhibits had not yet been finally arranged. The display in all branches is the most elaborate in the history of the local association. In addition to the usual exhibits, fifteen states are attracted here thru the International Farm Congress, whose sessions will be held next week.

It was military day, with hundreds of draft men present and the opening day of the Great Western races. The federal government has a big display. Twenty-five thousand dollars in premiums and trophies are to be awarded.

HONORED AT ANNAPALIS

The Valley Dispatch, published at Casa Grande, Ariz., in a recent issue had a column article about Clarence O. Ward, who is well known to a number of Morgan county people. This young man is a son of W. W. Ward, and was appointed to the naval academy at Annapolis in 1913 and graduated this year. "The Lucky Bag," a book published at the academy, containing a personal record of each one of the graduates, this year pays a special honor to this young man, who thru all his training course has been termed "Cap" by his associates. The article concludes with this paragraph: "When the time comes for a man to make good for his friends or for his country, the time that needs a man to 'put it across,' there is one in the 1917 class who can do it, a man who has never had a word spoken of him that was not a praise, a man that possesses the respect and love of every man with whom he came in contact—'Cap' Ward."

SHOULD CONSIDER ONLY EVIDENCE ALREADY SUBMITTED

Washington, Sept. 18.—President Wilson gave notice to all governors of states today that in hearing claims for exemption, coming up from the district boards he would consider only evidence already submitted to the boards and nothing else, unless the boards recommend it. LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND PRESBYTERY SESSIONS

Representatives of Morgan County Presbyterian Churches Return from Annual Fall Session at Springfield — Ensley Moore Presents Paper.

Representatives of the several Presbyterian churches of Morgan county returned Tuesday evening from Springfield, where they went to attend the annual fall session of the Springfield Presbytery. The meeting was held at the First Presbyterian church in the capital city and forty ministers were present. Rev. L. B. Laswell of Mt. Zion was elected moderator for the coming term and presided thruout the session. Four new pastors were admitted to the Presbytery at Tuesday morning's session. They are Rev. Thomas E. Shaw, who comes from the Waterloo, Iowa, Presbytery to become pastor of Pisgah church; Rev. Edgar W. Smith from the Kalamazoo Presbytery, now pastor of the churches at Bethlehem and Madison; Rev. M. E. Morse of the Prinleton Presbytery to the church at Cisco, and Rev. A. B. Stuart, assigned to the pastorate of the church of Farmingdale.

At the afternoon session there was an interesting departure from the regular program, when Mr. Ensley Moore of Jacksonville was presented by Rev. D. G. Carson, stated clerk of the Presbytery, to present a paper on "The Beginnings of Presbyterianism in Illinois and Jacksonville." Dr. Carson in presenting Mr. Moore, suggested that this being the 500th year since the Protestant reformation, that it was proper for the churches to make special observance of this great era in the world's history. The members of the Presbytery found the address of great interest and value. Dr. Carson in addition to his reference to the reformation, called attention to the propriety of Presbyterian churches taking notice of the coming centennial of Illinois. Dr. Carson is chairman of the commission on centennial celebration and he urged that all Presbyterian churches have their history prepared and presented for the benefit of the generations following.

The following committee appointments were made:

Overtures—Rev. W. E. Spoonts.

Judicial business—Rev. A. G. Bergen.

Records—Rev. J. W. McKiney.

General assembly—Rev. H. M. Hildebrandt.

Special—Rev. E. B. Landis.

In accordance with the recommendations made by the committee on benefits, four teams of pastors and elders were appointed to carry on plans in their various districts for the betterment of social and church conditions. These teams are as follows:

Jacksonville—Rev. W. E. Spoonts, Rev. R. B. Wilson, Rev. E. B. Landis.

RED CROSS TO VISIT TUBERCULOSIS PATIENTS

Systematic Visitation of Municipal Tuberculosis Hospitals in Paris Has Just Begun—Will do Much Toward Contributing to Comfort of Sick.

Washington, Sept. 18, 1917. The following cable from Major Grayson M.-P. Murphy, head of the Red Cross Commission to France, has been received by the Red Cross War Council:

"Systematic visitation of Municipal Tuberculosis Hospitals in Paris has just been begun by the American Red Cross. On the first visit inquiries were made of the patients as to what they most needed. On the second occasion the visitors did not go empty handed; they took with them games, stationery, postage, jelly, colored crayons, sketch books, etc.

During the past year the City of Paris has established temporary Tuberculosis Pavilions on the grounds of six general hospitals; the total capacity of these pavilions is 464 beds. Notwithstanding the enormous number of tuberculosis patients in Paris among the refugees and persons invalided from the Army, these pavilions are not more than half full. Many factors contribute to this result. The large amount of work thrust upon the civil authorities by the War conditions has not permitted much to make the pavilions attractive.

"The American Red Cross has secured permission to visit these hospitals and to befriend the tuberculosis patients. It hopes that not only will the lives of these patients be made much more comfortable, and their families relieved of anxiety, but that making the surroundings more cheerful, providing additional food, games, better equipment, reclining chairs and some form of recreation and entertainment, will result in the patients staying for longer periods.

"The use of the pavilions to their capacity would obviate the necessity of erecting additional tuberculosis hospitals with 300 beds, which would involve great expense and long delay."

THURSDAY, SEPT. 20TH IS THE DATE FOR OUR ANNUAL FALL OPENING. WE WILL FEATURE THE FAMOUS GAGE HATS. ALSO NEW ARTICLES IN ART EMBROIDERY, CORSETS AND HOSIERY.

A PATRIOTIC GERMAN.

A recent issue of the Massac Journal-Republican published at Metropolis, Ill., contains the story of a patriotic U. S. citizen who tho a German by birth, has knitted three pairs of yarn sox and turned them in at the Red Cross headquarters at Metropolis. The man, Stephen Mueller by name, is sixty nine years of age and was for many years a citizen of Quincy, only recently taking up his residence at Metropolis. Several weeks ago the Red Cross chapter there sent out an urgent appeal for knitters to supply the country's soldiers with sox, and Mr. Mueller's contribution was in response to this request.

CAMP TAYLOR IS READY FOR FIRST INCREMENT

All Plans Completed for Reception of Approximately 19,000 Men — Men Will Be Re-examined Immediately After Arrival.

Since 48 Morgan county men will leave Saturday for Camp Taylor at Louisville, Ky., people hereabouts will be especially interested in knowing of conditions at the big cantonment. The following Associated Press correspondence indicates that all prepparations are about completed for the reception of the men this week. About 19,000 men are expectid to reach the camp between Thursday and Sunday day morning. Camp Taylor is only a very short distance from Louisville and when the men do not arrive in coach loads they will be transported from the railway station on street cars. A pullman car has been ordered for the Morgan county men to be attached to the 4 o'clock train Saturday afternoon. This car will be routed via St. Louis and will reach Louisville early Sunday morning. The story given below was written under a Louisville date line.

All plans have been completed for the reception here at Camp Zachary Taylor of nearly 19,000 men, 40 per cent of the quota that Indiana, Kentucky and part of Illinois will contribute to the first increment to the new National Army. The men will begin to arrive here early tomorrow morning and will continue to come for several days.

The reception of such a large number of men will be a task of entirely different proportions from that furnished by the problems of caring for the first five per cent of the quota from these states which was sent forward beginning Sept. 5. The experience gained then, however, has been useful in showing how the plan for the reception of detachments could be improved.

The fact that many of the first men to arrive came to camp at night proved a vexing problem, as it made it difficult to care for them properly. Local exemption boards have been urged to see that men hereafter are started from their homes at an hour that will bring them to camp Taylor during the day.

Cars to Be Switched to Camp.

Details of officers will be on duty at every depot tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock and they will remain there until the last of the men arrive aboard one train the car will be switched directly to the camp. Smaller parties will be taken to the camp on street cars.

Arrived there the men will be turned over to the provost guard which will ascertain the district from which they came, and will direct them to a "chute" leading from the gate thru which all men from the same district will pass into the camp.

The use of the "chutes" eliminate all chances of confusion within the camp. Each body of the new troops will be made up of men drawn from a compact area within one of the three states which will be represented here. Only the men from one area will be handled through any single "chute", thus making it possible for the officers who will meet the men as they pass through the "chute" into the camp to devote their entire attention to their welfare and waste no effort in sorting them out. All the work of assortment will have been done before the men set foot within the boundaries of the camp.

After they have passed through the "chute" the men will be taken in tow by officers and directed to their quarters. These officers will also see that the men are fed, and that each is issued a cot, blankets, a mess kit and such toilet articles as are necessary. No other equipment will be issued the men until they have been re-examined physically.

Re-examination Work.

Immediately after the arrival, the work of re-examination will begin. Each man will be examined by members of the medical staff of the regimental organization to which he is assigned. After being examined he will be vaccinated against smallpox and innocculated against typhoid regardless of the result of the examination.

Any man declared unfit by the regimental medical officers will have to go before a reviewing board made up of specialists, and if declared unfit by them, his case will go to the Division Chief surgeon. On the approval of the reports of the regimental medical officers and reviewing board the man will be given his discharge, a travel allowance of three and a half cents a mile to his home, and pay for the time he has been held. In these cases where there is reason to believe a man is malingering he will be held for observation over an extended period.

If the men to come to Camp Taylor at this time measure up with those who have preceded them they will set a high standard. Medical officers atached to the camp say that the local boards have apparently done their work with the greatest possible thoroughness. Although all of the first received at the camp have not been finally passed upon, physically it seems certain that rejection on re-examination will not exceed four and one half per cent.

LIQUOR CASE ON TRIAL IN COUNTY COURT

Luther Vieira Charged With Selling in Anti-Saloon Territory.

In the county court yesterday the trial of Luther Vieira, charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory, was begun. A jury was not secured until the hour of adjournment. The case is being prosecuted by State's Attorney Robinson and the defendant's attorney is J. Marshall Miller. A motion was made early in the day to quash the indictment but this was overruled, and then a motion was made by Mr. Miller for a bill of particulars and a list of the witnesses. This motion was allowed as to the witnesses. After the objection of the state's attorney to the sheriff or the sheriff's office summoning men for common law venire, court appointed Louis Piepenbring to serve as special bailiff. He therefore summoned all of the men who were examined for jury service. Vieira is charged with having maintained a house in South Jacksonville where he sold beer and other liquors. The state is considered as having a strong case against him.

In the case of Earl Gardner, charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory, the cause was continued on motion of the state's attorney.

In the case of George McSherry, charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory, the state's attorney's motion for continuance was overruled and his motion for dismissal was then allowed.

In the case of Patrick Hayes, charged with being intoxicated at the Wabash station, the defendant was ordered to pay a fine of $35 and costs and at the request of the state's attorney capias profine was issued.

STATE FAIR CORN HONORS.

At the state fair John Whalen of Franklin won high honors as an exhibitor of white corn. The way he carried off prizes in this show with its many entries, is related in the Franklin Times as follows:

"John Whalen's exhibit of Boone county white corn at the state fair has been awarded first for best bushel Boone county white corn, first for best ten ears Boone county white in the central division, and the Grand Championship for white corn over all other exhibits in the state. Grand Champion—Get that? Mr. Whalen has been making a study of white corn breeding for several years and his triumph over all other breeders in Illinois this year is a signal victory. He has a right to be proud of it and Franklin should be proud of him.

"Ten ears of white corn exhibited by Harold McDevitt, son of S. H. McDevitt, received first prize in the boys' class."

Howard Gott of Cass county was a city caller yesterday.

IN SEARCH OF APPLES.

Messrs. F. M. and M. C. Buskirk of Lawrence, Michigan, are in the city in the employ of extensive apple buyers of the peninsular state. It seems that while Michigan is an apple state they do not produce the Jonathan apple up there and it is much desired. A gentleman also in the apple business said others got ahead of him in Pike and Calhoun counties and bought all the crops there for sale. One man named Ringhauser sold his crop for $31,000 on the trees, according to the statement of this apple buyer.

LITERBERRY AUTOISTS HAD DELIGHTFUL TRIP

Families of Taylor Berry and Alphonso Ratliff Traveled in Southeastern Part of County Sunday—Big Four Fishing Club in Contest—News Notes.

Literberry Sept. 17.—Mrs. Cephas Norman and children of Springfield are visiting the Young family at Maple Mound.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Ratliff and children took an outing on Sunday going to Jacksonville, Sinclair, Franklin, Waverly, Woodson and over miles and miles of beautiful country south and southeast, eating a picnic dinner on a nice bluegrass lawn at a school house on the way. They all had a fine time and were glad of the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Liter and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daniels and little Harold Lee went to the Sandridge Sunday, after melons. Monte Cristos taste just as good on Sunday as on Monday or Tuesday.

Rev. Hill of Decatur preached at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.

Sunshine Cottage is to have a new garage, Jesse Liter the builder. Concrete is being laid today for the floor.

Ruel Wesley, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Petefish of Cherry Cottage is on the sick list. Dr. Obermeyer was called Sunday morning to see him.

Wm. Norman and family spent Sunday at "Rose Bower," the pretty home of Mrs. Melissa Pane.

Three of the Big Four Fishing club of Literberry went up to Wolf Lake Thursday to try to decide who deserved the championship belt for the biggest catch. The members were J. A. Liter, J. S. Hitchins and D. K. McCarty. O. L. Crum drove them in his Ford. The contest was narrowed down to Hitchens and McCarty before the start was made. J. A. Liter was disqualified for the contest by being late thirty minutes. He plead guilty and took his medicine philosophically. Mr. Crum drove the 23 miles in 50 minutes. The fishing was good and each tried his best for the big one. Mr. Hitchins at one time was in a fair way to strip the belt from us, having hooked an 8-pound carp, but the big fish had no idea nor desire to be taken from the lake, so he did some pulling too, and succeeded in breaking the hook. Mr. H. talked of counting this big fish, because we all saw the struggle, but we had him fined 25 points for hooking a big carp with a minnow hook. Mr. Liter might have been wearing the belt today, had he been wide awake in the early morning. He hooked two enormous carp and saved them both. We sympathize with him in his failure to win the championship. We took, during the morning, about 50 pounds, all having good messes, even O. L. Crum doing a good business. We missed the two "brother preachers," Cantrall and Crabtree. We saw the place where they lay in the shade on the north side of the lake, the last time they were with us, two months ago. The willows and grass are still mashed down to the ground and all vegetation near their rest place is destitute of life or verdure.

We are still wearing the belt.

CONGREGATIONAL RED CROSS WORKERS

All Day Meeting Held Yesterday—Prepare Many Garments for the Soldiers.

The Congregational Red Cross unit met as usual yesterday in an all day meeting at the church. At the business meeting held in connection with it, Mrs. Havenhill reported that since the unit was organized, the ladies have turned in at the Red Cross Rooms the following articles:

52 pajama suits (104 garments.)
17 pillows.
10 dozen napkins.
3 dozen handkerchiefs.
5 socks for bandaged feet.

Mrs. W. A. Bancroft reported for the knitted articles as follows:

12 pairs of socks.
6 sweaters.
11 mufflers.
5 pairs of wristlets.

The cloth for the pajamas and the yarn for the knitting have been donated by the ladies.

A dozen more pajama suits were started at the meeting yesterday.

Dr. Dewey has ordered a knitting machine for the use of the unit. As soon as it comes the ladies expect to turn out socks rapidly.

WILL DEVELOP RANCH IN KANSAS.

An article in a recent issue of the Roodhouse Record states that I. L. Lemmon on Sept. 15 disposed of his holdings in the Elmore & Lemmon elevators at Manchester, Roodhouse and Barrow, the transfer taking effect at once. Mr. Elmore of Ashland is now sole owner of the property mentioned.

Mr. Lemmon still has an interest in the elevator business in Pike county, but this does not require his personal attention and he and Mrs. Lemmon will leave soon for their Kansas ranch, making the trip by auto. It is their intention to spend several weeks on the ranch, and it is probable they may remain there indefinitely. The ranch, which is located near Ravanna, Kan., comprises 1,400 acres and has been extensively improved during recent years. Mr. Lemmon plans the erection of a comfortable dwelling there soon, and a number of other betterments are projected. It is probable that fully a half section of wheat will be put in this fall. The facilities are excellent for stock raising on a large scale, and Mr. Lemmon now has a herd of a hundred and fifty head of cattle and is constantly adding to the number.

Ross Lemmon has been superintending the work on the ranch for the past year and will remain there for the present.

SPENT SEVERAL YEARS IN THE PHILIPPINES

Robert Scarlett Now Government Inspector at Capps was in Service in the Islands—Made Study of People and Customs.

Robert D. Scarlett of Chicago, inspector of the cloth J. Capps & Sons are making for the government, spent several years in government work in the Philippine Islands. Mr. Scarlett made a special study of conditions in the Islands both as to inhabitants and products and talks interestingly of those Island possessions.

Since returning to the United States Mr. Scarlett has delivered many lectures on the Philippines in churches and Y. M. C. A's. He exhibits a large number of stereopticon slides and judging from press notices he makes an interesting talk.

Recently Mr. Scarlett heard Chief Caupolican, who appeared at the Chautauqua, lecture in the Auditorium in Chicago. Chief Caupolican is a Chilean and he made some statements relative to the Philippines that Mr. Scarlett disputed and their impromptu discussion was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Mr. Scarlett said yesterday that he had all of his slides for his lecture on the Philippines with him and would like to arrange to give a lecture while he is in the city. He believes that the American public should have more knowledge of the Islands and their possibilities. It is probable that arrangemnts may be made with Mr. Scarlett to give his lecture before some church body while here.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE
Duty Demands Robust Health
Fight to get it and keep it
Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ills and ails. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.
But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman ofttimes becomes a pray to ills after all.
You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.
Hypoferrin contains those mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin-and-iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, sallow, pale complexions that "all in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin-and-iron peptonate in the system.
Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin-and-iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.
This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and paint way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.
No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.
Hypoferrin may be had at your druggist's or direct from us for $1.00 per package. It is well worth the price.—The Sentanel Remedies Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

DREAD OF INJURY BY FROST LIFTS CORN

Prices Finish 2⅞ to 3⅜ Cents Net Higher—Oats Gain 1⅜ to 1⅞ Cents.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Dread of crop injury by frost led to a sharp advance today in the corn market. Prices finished 2⅞@3⅜c net higher. Oats gained 1⅜@1⅞c. The close in provisions ranged from 10@15c decline to a raise of 7c.

Corn prices began to jump as soon as the government forecast was out showing that frost was probable tonight in North Dakota. Resumption of work at two big Illinois industrial plants grinding a total of 34,000 bushels of corn a day tended further to lift prices.

Oats as well as corn felt the bullish effects of probable unsettled weather. Shipping and elevator concerns were conspicuous buyers influenced to some extent apparently by a falling off in receipts at Chicago. To meet millers' requisition for 462 car loads of wheat the food administrator representatives here had fresh receipts of only 64 car loads today with about 28 car loads carried over from yesterday. Receipts in the northwest and Canada, tho, were fairly large.

Provisions averaged higher on account of a rise in quotations on corn and hogs. Active selling to realize profits however, brought about a reaction.

STOCKS STIFFEN AND CANCEL MOST LOSSES

Pressure is Again Exerted Toward the Close, but the List Holds Up Fairly Well.

New York, Sept. 18.—After a period of renewed heaviness the stock market stiffened today and losses were largely cancelled. The selling movement appeared to have been checked for the time, but toward the close pressure was again exerted. In some cases further declines were recorded, altho the list in general held up fairly well. Total sales were 665,000 shares.

A number of stocks reached new low points for the movement and in the cases of a few industrials the setback was severe. The whole market apparently represented nothing more than alternating phases of a highly professional market, signifying no change in the bearish sentiment of the street. There was one favorable development, however, a decidedly easier tone in money, with call funds loaning under 3 per cent.

The bond market was lower again today. Total sales (par value) $3,450,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Liberty bonds sold at 99.98 to 100.

ZEPHYR FLOUR

—a lesson in food values.

It isn't accidental that bread and butter, or meat and potatoes, have a daily place on every table.

These two food combinations, more nearly than any others, contain all the elements needed to nourish and sustain the human body. Either combination is a perfect food in itself.

Scientifically chosen for pure nourishment, ZEPHYR bread (with butter) is by far the best balanced and most nutritious of the two—the very cheapest food known.

	Cost of 2500 Calories	Fats	Carbohydrates	Protein
Zephyr and Butter	19c	86.0%	75.1%	12.4%
Meat and Potatoes	44c	16.2%	14.7%	18.3%

At one-half less cost ZEPHYR bread and butter yield five times the fats and five times the carbohydrates of meat and potatoes combined.

Ten cents' worth of ZEPHYR bread and butter provide over ten times the energy, together with more tissue-building protein, than the same amount of meat and potatoes. Choose food scientifically. Use more ZEPHYR —the heartiest, sturdiest, cheapest food in the world.

Fats and carbohydrates sustain and operate the body: proteins repair it.

IN OLD MISSOURI

Read This Twice! Only $12,000

This farm I have been laying for. I have got to break the ice in Missouri. Do you know what Shelby county is? If not, look it up.

Here is the firs toffer to some client who wants a bargain and is absolutely a snap. Remember your railroad fare is refunded if propositions made by me are not as represented.

132 acres of land situated 5½ miles of Shelbyville, the county seat with house of 6 large rooms, 2 full stories, 3 porches, fine bored well, 2 cisterns, 6 acres timber and blue grass pasture with fine spring. All woven wire fenced and cross fenced with red cedar corner and gate posts set in cement, 18 irons and Kant-Sag gates on farm, clover, wheat, corn and oats raised this year, 35 acres in timothy and clover. Plenty of fruit for family use, 2 larfie barns, one 40x52 for cattle ,one 24x36 horse barn, holds 75 tons of hay, granary 14x18, 4 bins, with galvanized roof and large wagon shed on the side. Too lhouse 18x36 with galvanized roof. New wood and smokehouse combined, double hen house, 3 concrete watering tanks, piped.

Farm is gently rolling, 25 acres bottom land never known to overflow. 5¾ miles to one of the finest German churches in Missouri. One mile to Baptist church and 2 different schools. R. F. D. passes door.

This farm was bought and improved during the last 7 years . Reason of fear that property will be abused. There is a loan of $3,500 held by the for selling, present owner lost a limb and doesn't want to rent on account Illinois State Bank of Quincy and the low price is $12,000. Now this farm is in a high state of cultivation and only $1.37 R. R. fare from Quincy.

Who will be interested in trying to purchase this proposition?

I have a few Adams Co., Ill., cheap farms, improved, at prices ranging from $65 to $85. These farms are some 10 and 12 miles from R. R. Some better located nearer at $100 to $150. Also some good bottom farms, some tiled at prices of $75 to $150. Farms run in sizes as follows: 80, 125, 150, 170, 200, 250 to 320 acres. These are well located, close to school and good towns. Have sold some 19 farms since June 15th. Why not buy a farm? Others are buying. Some 3400 acres in the above named farms sold. Write me or wire me you are coming to see me.

SOLDIER WRITES FROM FRENCH FRONT

Young American Well Known Here Tells of Line Conditions in Very Interesting Way.

Frank Boyd, grandson of the late David Hamilton and grand nephew of Samuel Metcalf of this city, has written two letters which the Journal is permitted to copy. The first was to former friends in American Seating company of Chicago and was a prize letter; the second is to home friends and both are interesting.

In France, Aug. 17, 1917.

"Dear Fellows:

I don't remember when I wrote you last but believe it was sometime before the middle of July, before I went into Paris on my special permission. What I did there and while on repos is of little interest. Since we have been back at the front we have had a very hot time. We have been back for over a week and while we have been busy our hard work has not as yet started. Within three nights from now we expect to have every car on duty and for three or four nights and days the boys will have to go without sleep and little to eat.

Since I wrote last I have been made sous chief of our section and am in second command of the entire section and am now kept busy night and day. I no longer drive an ambulance but have a staff car and driver to use. I am responsible for the condition of the cars and must visit the posts and arrange for service, etc. I wear a galon on each sleeve and a silver grenadier on my collar instead of red. I am really a French officer. We have a French lieutenant and two assistants to look after material for the government and the chief and I have our meals with them and we all have the same quarters. We have some real good times at meal times on repos but up here we don't have much time to eat.

Shell Went Through Roof

We are back in the same place we were before but it is very active here now and in a day or two a really big thing is to be pulled off and it will mean at least 1000 French wounded per day for us to handle. Roads that were safe when we were here before are now under fire most of the time. Shells are landing on our cantonment and one went thru the roof of the building next to ours a couple of days ago. There are always 20 or 30 aeroplanes in the air during the day time and never less than 20 captive balloons. A boche came over our place a few nights ago and sprayed the road with his machine gun and dropped a few bombs. The roads to the posts are terrible now and are full of wagons and camions taking ammunition and food. For fifty miles back from the front the road is like a railroad train. From dusk until dawn it is full of camions about 10 feet apart and in both directions. I had charge of one convoy and I had an awful time getting them in here—five new drivers. One got lost and didn't show up for twelve hours. The camions go right up to the front and unload and then come down. That is what the boys get every night. Sometimes taking three and four hours to go where I have gone on a clear road in twelve minutes. The road is under fire all the time and when a horse is killed it holds things up for a while. We work all posts in day time as well as night now.

Must Be Hardened to Work

We have one new fellow about 40 years old. He is a fine man. I sent him out last night for the first time. He made three trips and every time he had a man die in his car and at the post he had a fellow die in his arms who had given him his gun and helmet. To do the best work here one has to harden himself to this stuff and I long ago made up my mind to that.

Three days ago one of the boys and one of the Frenchmen had the camionette out to a little village back from the lines to get provisions. While they were there a big German shell came in and killed a number of people. Big shells always come in pairs and generally very near to each other. After the first one exploded a number of people ran into an old building, and as luck would have it the shell hit it and killed about 30 people and injured a large number. Our car took away eight men.

Well I guess I have given you all the bunk necessary for this time. A thousand things have happened that I wanted to tell you but they will have to keep until I get back.

The Artillery is hitting it up in fine shape now and getting things ready for our boys to go over the top of the trenches. I know a lot of the boys that are going and a large per cent will never return.

We are attached to an attacking division, and they get all the hot work.

We expect to be here for about a week's hot work and after that repos again; and after that our permissions in Paris. They were due on the 8th but we can't go while we are busy.

Sincerely,
(Signed) Frank.

In France, August 24, 1917.

Dear Dad:

This is the first chance I have had to write in several days.

Our section has just experienced the hardest work we have ever had and I am told the hardest work ever given an American Ambulance section. The first two days of the attack we had all twenty our our ambulances on duty. Besides that our two camions and ten cars loaned to us by another section. The boys all worked well and the section did the work to the entire satisfaction of the general of our division. For four days and three nights I did not get one wink of sleep and spent my time at the post, on the road and at our barracks. I had charge of the running of the cars and I put a little American Co. system into the section and run things on schedule as much as possible. The road to the post was under fire all the time and whenever a driver or a horse was killed or a car or wagon smashed it would hold things up for a time. The first night of the attack two camions of powder blew up and the road was blocked for several hours. Then the Germans sent over a lot of gas shells. Many horses and some soldiers were killed and a lot were put out of business. I had to wear my gas mask for five hours. I had tried the thing on several times before and never thought I could keep it on for five minutes as they are so hot, but one can do a lot of things if he must. As it was I got gas in my eyes and for a time I could hardly see. I got treated at the post and was O. K. the following morning.

I saw many men shot right off their wagons on the road and saw dozens of horses killed by shells. The morning after the attack I saw a part of a soldier's body in the road. One of Section 4's men was hit in the arm and one of the men he was carrying was killed. Most every car we have was hit by pieces of shells but we were fortunate enough not to have anyone wounded. Had one car turn over and several lost wheels.

Attack was Successful

The Germans shelled the post and several have been killed in the street in front of it. The attack was more than successful as you may have read in the papers. We have now moved our post up into what was No Man's land. Over seven thousand Germans were taken and they all seem to be tickled to death to be here. They are all very meek and as individuals one must feel sorry for them. The French treat them fine. I have seen thousands of them and have never seen one mistreated yet. They are given all they want to eat and are even given cigarettes. I have a German cap that one of them gave me. Also a compass and a lot of buttons. Also two German gas masks. No one is allowed to take anything from them unless they are given something in return. Such a difference from the treatment the Germans give the English and French. The German dead have been buried and their graves marked.

The German soldiers do not seem to know that America has declared war on them. One told us that he was sure that America was fighting France and helping Germany. Can you beat it? They were all hungry and some of them said that all they had to eat was a small can of meat per day for six, and the can as small as an ink bottle.

The gas the Germans are now sending over is a new kind. It is not as fatal as the old gas as it is not so hard on the lungs. The new gas forms blisters wherever the skin is tender or thin and it is very painful.

Things are pretty quiet now and we only have six cars on duty today. We have to be relieved in a day or so so that we may go on repose. All of the boys are pretty well all in and need a rest. I have just found out what my rank in the French army is. I am a second lieutenant.

My time will be up the 14th of October and if I am as tired then as I am today you will see me in Chicago by the first part of November. Will write you again when I get on repose.

Love to mama and Louise.

With love,
Frank.

Keep the Children Well

To keep the little ones well, sturdy and happy, free of coughs, colds, croup, little fevers and inflamed throats, use

Foley's Honey and Tar.

It is carefully made of selected remedies that loosen and break up a cough, stop croup and ease an aching inflamed throat, and it is clean of all narcotics.

The prompt use of Foley's Honey and Tar is very helpful for whooping cough, and the restless feverish state that attends children's diseases.

M. T. Davis, Bearsville, W. Va, writes: — "One of my patrons had a small child taken with croup. They came to my store and bought a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and before morning the child was entirely recovered."

A VETERAN TAILOR.

The venerable Louis Haerle of Indianapolis is in the city visiting his son George for a short time. Mr. Haerle was born in Wittenberg, Germany, Sept. 23, 1828 and is therefore just about 89 years old. He came to this country in 1851 and remained four years in New York and then taking Greeley's advice sought the west and located in Perry, Pike county where he remained 24 years and then came to Jacksonville and had a tailor shop over the room occupied by Lee Allcott.

He worked at his trade 64 years when failing eyesight compelled him to desist, much to his disappointment. In 1905 he gave up and went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Carrie Harms in Indianapolis. Except for the lack of good eyes the old gentleman seems to be in the full possession of all his faculties. His hearing is as acute as that of a young person and he gets about with ease and chafes under the enforced rest he is taking. He certainly bids fair to reach par should no untoward circumstances overtake him.

Mrs. N. E. Oddy, Lloyd Wans, Walter N. Oddy, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Foster, all arrived in the city Monday night and put up for the night proceeding yesterday morning to their homes in Alexander. They were on their way from an excursion to Texas.

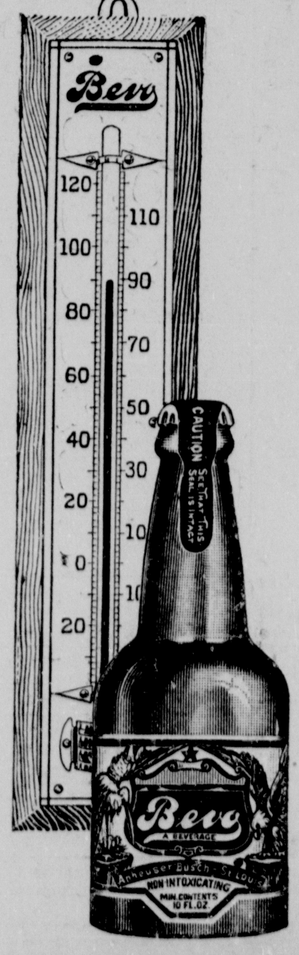
Hot Weather Notice



Good news for the thirsty! Here's a beverage that not only will taste good while you are drinking it, but that will leave the mouth tasting as fresh as a May morning. One, too, that has that very desirable quality of having no heating after-effects.

As a between-meals drink it has the happy faculty of always reaching that dry spot that needs irrigation. With meals, it is an ideal beverage. Not only does its flavor make it go perfectly with food, but its tang adds zest to your enjoyment of a meal—hot or cold.

Serve Bevo cold—right off the ice—lukewarm Bevo is not palatable.
